

OSCAR-WINNING LOOKS

Look like a movie star with tailored skin treatments at DestinationSkin

Following the official Oscar nominations announcement today, the leading provider of non surgical solutions DestinationSkin are celebrating the glitz, glamour and the sheer fabulousness of Hollywood with a launch of movie-star themed treatment packages.

Ella Tracey, Managing Director of DestinationSkin "Hollywood stars always look stunning and effortless at award ceremonies. But there is usually a whole team of people that helps them look perfect on the night". She added: "At DestinationSkin, we make it possible for everyone to look and feel like a celebrity – and not just for a day"

Two Golden Globes winner and Oscar nominee Kate Winslet's natural beauty is often the envy of others – now with a "Kate" treatment package, which includes deeply exfoliating peels, you too can enjoy a smooth, plump and fresh-looking complexion.

If you're suffering from acne like the Red Carpet queen Cameron Diaz, you can treat your skin with a tailored "Cameron" package, designed to clear and smooth your skin, leaving it glowing and blemish-free.

Good news for all women lusting after Gwyneth Paltrow's beautiful legs – with the "Gwyneth" hair removal package you too can get smooth, even-looking pins you will want to show off in ultra mini skirts.

More mature customers should try the advanced "Meryl" skin treatment package, which includes laser treatments and Botox amongst others. Named after Oscar-nominee Meryl Streep, the treatment is "Ideal for smoothing out lines and wrinkles, diminishing sun damage and bringing back that healthy glow to the skin" said Ms Tracey.

Finally, couples too can enjoy a celebrity treatment thanks to a "Brangelina" package which includes the latest anti-ageing treatments to help you look as fabulous as Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie.

Packages start from £155 and are available throughout February in all DestinationSkin clinics, including Westfield shopping centre.
